PREAMBLE AND BRIEF HISTORICAL BACKGROUND

The Joint Christian Campus Fellowship (JCCF) FUTA started from a small unit gathering of believers on campus in the late 1996/97 academic session. At its inception, its major purpose was centred on joint prayers for the campus, so it was not given a name. As time passed, FUTA management desired to have all student fellowships registered under a unified Christian body that could be responsible for it. This led to the formal establishment of the Joint Christian Campus Fellowship (JCCF) FUTA with five pioneering executives: the President, Vice-President, General Secretary, Treasurer, and Public Relations Officer. This Executive was mainly saddled with the responsibility of producing a working document (constitution) for the formal registration of the Christian body representing the protestant fellowships on campus.

Due to the enormous task of producing the constitution within the limited time, the pioneer executives could not complete the constitution and so handed it over to a seven-man Executive of the 1997/98 academic session. This new Executive comprising the President, Vice-President, General Secretary, Treasurer, Organizing Secretary, Prayer Secretary, and Public Relations Officer completed the constitution in a very short time and formalised the registration of JCCF with FUTA management.

The main programs introduced by the first Executive (1996/97) were: noon combined prayers (first week of resumption), teaching weekend, and periodic intercessory sessions as the need arose. These were adopted in the constitution with the aims of uniting the Christian community on campus, expanding the Christian body, and for the spiritual edification of all students and staff.

As we endeavour to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, it is good to note that our emphasis is not the conglomeration of campus fellowships but the oneness of purpose pressing towards the mark of growing into the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ.
